

OAKLAND BUSINESS REVIEW

March 13-19, 2008

Rise Fall

Among the region's movers and shakers:
Who won? Who lost?

HOME SALES

Michigan multilisting service Realcomp II Ltd. is reporting an uptick in home sales. Farmington Hills-based Realcomp reported that regionally, there were 3,184 home sales in February 2007, compared to 3,591 last month, a 12.8 percent increase. Oakland County saw a 7.54 percent increase, with 761 sales in February of last year, compared to 818 this year.